

GUIDE TO SCHOLARSHIPS 2007-2008

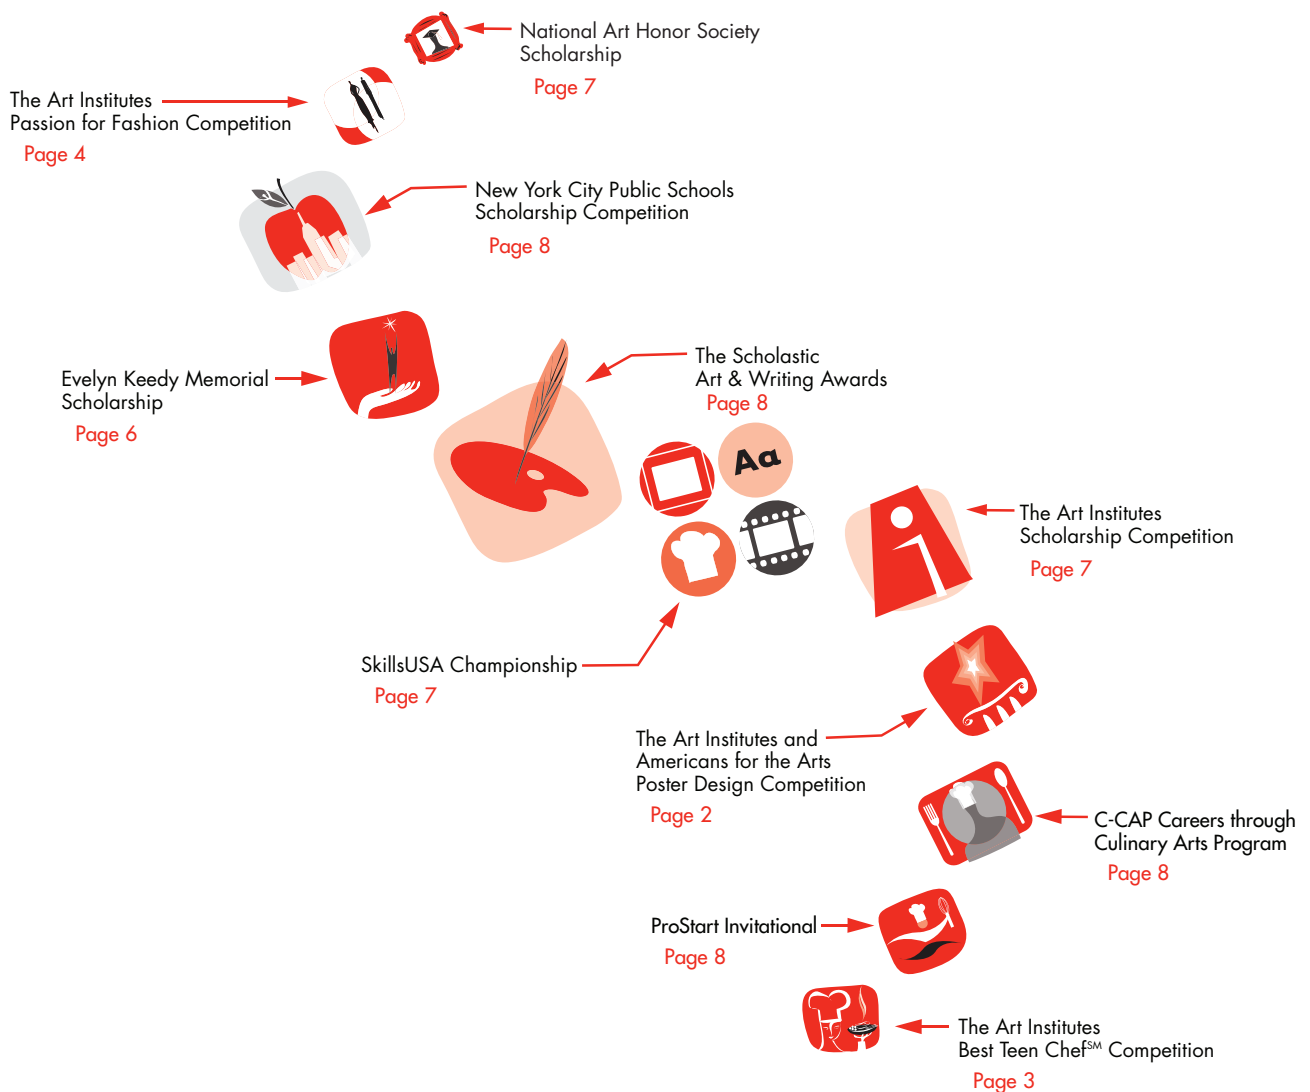

It can pay to do a little homework.

Before you even arrive at one of The Art Institutes schools, you have a little homework to do. Our homework, however, may really pay off when it comes to helping you defray the costs of your education.

This helpful booklet lists the criteria and rules for many scholarships for which you may be eligible and (even better) contains the applications for each scholarship, so you can complete an application right away.

We encourage you to carefully review this booklet and, if you have further questions or need school-specific information, contact the Admissions Department at The Art Institutes location in which you're interested. Or, log on to http://www.artinstitutes.edu/financialaid_scholarships.asp.

SCHOLARSHIPS LISTING

The Art Institutes and Americans for the Arts Poster Design Competition

LIFE IS BETTER WITH ART IN IT.

You feel it. Life is better with art in it. Capture that sentiment in your own unique poster design, and your work could earn you a scholarship to one of over 35 Art Institutes locations across North America.

It's all about your creativity. You choose the message and the medium that will wow our judges. We'll look for the most original, imaginative submissions based on the theme "Life Is Better With Art In It"

If you're a high school student nearing graduation who plans to study graphic design, or a qualifying student interested in other programs, we encourage you to apply your talent to the poster competition. You could walk away with designs on a career in the creative and applied arts.

*The local first place winner at each participating Art Institutes location automatically advances to the national competition.

National tuition scholarships will be awarded in addition to local tuition scholarships. Recipients of tuition scholarships must apply the scholarship award to The Art Institutes location indicated on the entry form that they represent in the competition. Scholarship awards are contingent upon acceptance to the chosen Art Institutes location. All decisions made by the judges are final and may not be disputed.

A gallery of all local first place winners will be featured online. For more information, visit artinstitutes.edu/poster.

Winners must meet all school and program general admission requirements. Recipients of tuition scholarships must apply the scholarship award to The Art Institutes location indicated on the entry form and that they represent in the competition. You may only enter the competition at one Art Institutes location. Scholarship awards are contingent upon acceptance to the chosen Art Institutes location and must be used at The Art Institutes location you represent in the competition. Tuition scholarships are non-transferable. All decisions made by the judges are final and may not be disputed. All entry materials become property of The Art Institutes and will not be returned. The Art Institutes are not responsible for any lost, incomplete, or stolen entries. In the event that the scholarship recipient's education is terminated, either by the school or by the student, the scholarship becomes null and void. Tuition scholarships are not redeemable for cash. The tuition scholarship applies to academic tuition and may not be applied against fees, housing, living expenses, or program supplies and may not be transferred between affiliate schools. Tuition scholarship recipients must begin their program of study in the summer or fall following the competition. Scholarship recipients must not interrupt their studies; interruption of studies will result in a loss of the scholarship.

COMPETITION ELIGIBILITY

- You must be a high school senior who will graduate in 2008.
- You must have a 2.0 minimum grade point average.
- You must fulfill all individual graphic design program requirements of The Art Institutes location where you enter the competition.

DEADLINE

Entries must be received by February 8, 2008. Local competition winners will be notified no later than March 28, 2008. Selection and notification of the national winner will be made by May 9, 2008.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Student submissions should show an understanding of the theme "Life is Better With Art in It," basic design concepts, and a keen eye for design.

Students must complete an entry form and materials, as outlined below. Local first place winners will be selected by the judges, and will move on to the national finals.

HOW TO ENTER

- Fill out, sign, and scan the entry/release form on page 9. Your parent or legal guardian must also review and sign this form if you are under 18 years of age.
- Email form, along with a designer's statement in Microsoft Word format, current high school transcript, and one poster design to: posterdesign@aii.edu. The email's subject line must contain your name and The Art Institutes location where you're entering the competition. Incomplete entry submissions will be disqualified.

Interested in applying? Use the entry form on page 9.

The Art Institutes Best Teen ChefSM Competition

The Best Teen ChefSM Competition gives high school seniors a chance to show off their culinary skills as they compete for tuition scholarships to The Art Institutes. Qualifying students begin at local competitions, and winners move on to the national finals – where the grand prize winner is named Best Teen Chef.

LOCAL AND NATIONAL COMPETITIONS

Local cook-off competitions will take place on April 12, 2008 at participating Art Institutes locations offering Culinary programs. The first-place winner from each local cook-off competition will advance to The Art Institutes National Best Teen Chef Culinary Scholarship Competition finals at The Art Institute of Las Vegas.

A reception will take place at The Art Institute of Las Vegas on May 16, 2008. The Art Institutes National Best Teen Chef Competition takes place on May 17, 2008.

All decisions made by judges are final and may not be disputed.

TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

LOCAL

First Place$3,000 tuition scholarship

NATIONAL

First PlaceFull-tuition scholarship and title of Best Teen Chef

Second – Third PlaceFull-tuition scholarship

Fourth – Sixth PlaceHalf-tuition scholarship

Seventh – Ninth PlaceQuarter-tuition scholarship

All Remaining Contestants$2,000 tuition scholarship

National tuition scholarships will be awarded in addition to local prizes except when a winner receives a full-tuition scholarship, then only the full-tuition scholarship will be awarded.

All tuition scholarships are awarded toward a culinary associate's degree, diploma, or certificate program. The tuition scholarship award received may be used as a partial credit toward a culinary bachelor's degree program, should one be offered at the winner's represented school and the applicant meets admission requirements into the program. Should a winner choose to exercise this option, the credit towards a bachelor's degree program will equal the tuition scholarship amount awarded toward the culinary associate's degree, diploma, or certificate program at the school. All tuition scholarships must be used at the location the student has chosen to represent in the competition. Tuition scholarships are non-transferable.

Upon accepting the tuition scholarship, you must begin your culinary arts studies in the summer or fall immediately following the national Best Teen Chef Scholarship Competition.

DEADLINE

Entries must be received at The Art Institutes location where you plan to enter the competition no later than February 8, 2008. Local competitions will take place on April 12, 2008. The national competition will take place at The Art Institute of Las Vegas on May 17, 2008.

The Art Institutes Passion for Fashion Competition

GREAT FASHION SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

How do you define your fashion sense? Maybe you dream of creating the hottest trends. Or imagine creating displays for a fashionable boutique. If you have a true passion for fashion, your big ideas could earn you a full-tuition scholarship to a fashion program at one of The Art Institutes locations.

How? By showing off your stuff! Submit your designs or marketing plans to The Art Institutes Passion for Fashion Competition — it could be your ticket to New York Fashion Week, a “meet-and-greet” at Seventeen Magazine, and a full-tuition scholarship to any of the 25 Art Institutes locations across North America that offer fashion programs.

HOW TO ENTER

Choose from two competition categories: 1) Fashion Design or 2) Fashion Marketing & Merchandising and Retail Management. Select the competition that best matches your skills, then complete the attached Entry & Release form. We strongly recommend that entry materials be submitted in one package. Essays and information may be submitted on a CD-ROM. Mail your package with all application materials to The Art Institutes location where you plan to enter the competition and attend after the competition. Schools offering fashion programs are listed on page 5. For more information, visit artinstitutes.edu/passion4fashion.

DEADLINES

All entries must be received at The Art Institutes location where you plan to enter the competition and attend by November 19, 2007. Each local winner will be notified by December 21, 2007. Selection and notification of the national winners will be made by January 18, 2008.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Each local Fashion Design competition and local Fashion Marketing & Merchandising and Retail Management competition winner will receive a $3,000 tuition scholarship to The Art Institutes location they represent in the competition. Local first place winning entries will move on to the national competition.

The national grand prize winners in the Fashion Design competition and the Fashion Marketing & Merchandising and Retail Management competition are each awarded a full-tuition scholarship to The Art Institutes location they represent in the competition. Both grand prize winners receive a VIP trip to Fashion Week in New York City in February 2008 and the opportunity for a “meet-and-greet” at Seventeen Magazine.

Second place winners in both categories receive a $5,000 tuition scholarship to The Art Institutes location they represented in the competition. National third place winners are awarded a $4,000 tuition scholarship to The Art Institutes location they represented in the competition.

All tuition scholarships must be used at The Art Institutes location where you enter the competition, and are non-transferable. The school must offer programs in Fashion Design and/or Fashion Marketing & Merchandising and Retail Management. Upon accepting the scholarship, you must agree to begin your fashion studies in the summer or fall quarter immediately following the competition. You may enter the competition at only one Art Institutes location.

All winners must meet all school and program general admission requirements at The Art Institutes location where you enter the competition. Recipients of tuition scholarships must apply the tuition scholarship award to The Art Institutes location indicated on the entry form. Tuition scholarship awards are contingent upon acceptance to the chosen Art Institutes location and must be used at The Art Institutes location you represent in the competition. Tuition scholarships are non-transferable. All decisions made by the judges are final and may not be disputed. The Art Institutes are not responsible for any lost, incomplete, or stolen entries. In the event that the scholarship recipient's education is terminated, either by the school or by the student, the scholarship becomes null and void. Tuition scholarships are not redeemable for cash. The tuition scholarship covers academic tuition and may not be applied against fees, housing, living expenses, or program supplies and may not be transferred between affiliate schools. Tuition scholarship recipients must begin their program of study in the summer or fall following the competition. Scholarship recipients must not interrupt their studies; interruption of studies will result in a loss of the scholarship.

CATEGORIES AND CRITERIA

You may make submissions in one of the following categories:

FASHION DESIGN

To enter, you must be a high school senior scheduled to graduate in 2008, and you must fulfill all general admission and competition guidelines.

Your entry must include:

- Completed Entry & Release form.
- Your high school transcript showing a minimum 2.0 GPA.
- A short essay (800 words or less) outlining why your fashion entry is unique/innovative and explaining your interest and motivation for a career in fashion.
- A finished, originally designed eveningwear garment product* The product may be any of the following — shirt (size medium); or pants, dress, or skirt (women size 8 or men size 40); or suit, including blouse, pants, or skirt (women size 8 or men size 40).
- Process Book (compiled in 8-1/2" x 11" binder), which serves as your design process summary, from original idea to finished product. The book should include:
 1. A written summary of your overall concept.
 2. A review of influences on your entry, including fashion designers, music, television shows, or movies.

The Art Institutes Passion for Fashion Competition

Your entry must include: (continued)

3. Sketches, illustrations, photographs, or digital images of your project as it evolved from concept to completion.
4. A written summary of people that you contacted for information about your project, including the advice they provided and its influence on you.

* Garment must be your original work. However, your finished product may be manufactured by an outside source. This competition requires submission of a finished eveningwear garment. Examples of eveningwear include full-length gown, cocktail dress, cocktail suit, formal evening suit, blouse/skirt combo, or a jacket/blouse/skirt or pants combo. The Art Institutes acknowledge that all applicants may not have the same access to materials needed to complete a finished product. As such, unfinished garments may be submitted. However, a completed product will enhance your entry. The Art Institutes are not responsible for lost entries. Should you advance to the national competition, your entry will not be returned. Other entries will be returned by request only. All decisions made by judges are final and may not be disputed.

FASHION MARKETING & MERCHANDISING AND RETAIL MANAGEMENT

To enter, you must be a high school senior scheduled to graduate in 2008, and you must fulfill all general admission and competition guidelines.

Your entry must include:

- Completed Entry & Release form.
- Your high school transcript showing a minimum 2.0 GPA.
- A short essay (800 words or less) addressing how your fashion creation will contribute to the advancement of the fashion industry, as well as what sparked your interest in the fashion industry.
- A finished and original Fashion Marketing, Fashion Merchandising, or Retail Management product or plan.
- A written description of your product or plan (1,000 words or less). Entries may include: a retail store concept, marketing promotion, store layouts, fashion business concept, new concept for retail, Internet fashion concept, catalogue retail concept, home fashion concept, or industrial fashion/safety/consumer trend product.

The Art Institutes acknowledge that all applicants may not have the same access to materials needed to complete a finished product or plan. Therefore, unfinished products or plans may be entered. However, a completed product or plan will enhance your entry. The Art Institutes are not responsible for lost entries. Should you advance to the national competition, your entry will not be returned. Other entries will be returned by request only. All decisions made by judges are final and may not be disputed.

Evelyn Keedy Memorial Scholarship

High school seniors who show dedication to their education and a desire for a creative career may apply for the Evelyn Keedy Memorial Scholarship through The Art Institutes. This is a $30,000 tuition scholarship. Details and applications may be obtained by contacting The Art Institutes location of your choice or calling 1-800-275-2440. Deadline is May 1, 2008.

About Evelyn Keedy

The late Evelyn Keedy was a highly respected High School Admissions Representative with The Art Institutes for many years. She served in several capacities at The Art Institute of Dallas before beginning her work as an Art Institutes Representative at high schools in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. She is fondly remembered for her enthusiasm, dedication, and commitment to serving the students of The Art Institutes.

About the Scholarship

In memory of Evelyn Keedy, a $30,000 tuition scholarship is awarded each year to a worthy high school senior who has enrolled at one of the over 35 eligible Art Institutes locations.

SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

An applicant must be a senior at a high school located within the United States. Deadline for entry is May 1, 2008. The winner will be notified by June 2, 2008 and must accept the scholarship offer by June 16, 2008. An offer not accepted by that date will be rescinded and offered to the first runner-up.

ENTRY PREPARATION

Applicants for the scholarship must submit:

- A completed entry form indicating the school and program of study desired.
- An official high school transcript indicating current 3.0 grade point average or higher and class rank.
- A letter of recommendation from a guidance counselor or teacher.
- A letter of recommendation from an employer, club sponsor, coach, or community service leader.
- A typed résumé stating educational background, extracurricular activities, hobbies, work experience, community involvement, and awards.
- A 200-word essay about their career choice and why they have chosen it.

JUDGING

A team of Admissions and High School Program staff will select the winner and two runners-up. Decisions will be final.

WINNER'S OBLIGATIONS

The scholarship recipient must begin his or her program of study in the summer or fall quarter following high school graduation. The recipient must not interrupt his or her studies; interruption of studies will result in loss of the scholarship. The scholarship will be suspended in quarters when the recipient's cumulative grade point average falls below 2.5.

ENTRY MATERIALS

All entry materials become the property of The Art Institutes. The judging team is not responsible for loss, damage, or return of entry materials.

OTHER CONDITIONS

The scholarship will be awarded only to a student who has been admitted to his or her chosen Art Institutes location. In the event that the scholarship recipient's education is terminated either by the student or the school, the scholarship becomes null and void. The scholarship is not redeemable for cash and may not be used to finance optional programs sponsored by the school. The scholarship covers two academic years' tuition (six quarters) only and may not be applied against fees, housing, living expenses, or program supplies, and may not be transferred between affiliate schools.

Interested in applying? Use the entry form on page 13.
