* Graduates available for employment excludes graduates who have waived employment assistance for one of the following reasons: medical condition that prevents full-time employment; active military duty; incarceration; death; non-immigrant status; or furthering education load with minimum of 50% credit load.

 Our graduates work on average 43–50 hours a week so overtime is calculated in their salaries.

 School average is skewed upward due to one or more extraordinary salaries that do not depict earnings typical of entry-level Art Institutes graduates.

† Subtotal includes employment activity for a total of eight graduates of programs which are no longer offered to new students.

†† All Program Totals exclude new programs for which there were no graduates and include employment activity for a total of twenty graduates of programs which are no longer offered to new students. For a complete list of available programs, please contact the Admissions Department.

Data represents employment for January 1, 2006–December 31, 2006 graduates, six months after graduation.

Your future is in sight.

With over 35 education locations in North America, The Art Institutes is able to connect students with local and national employers who value our graduates' talents. Many of these companies offer internship programs that will help you to gain practical experience while still in school.

Our programs in design, media arts, fashion, and culinary arts are led by professional instructors. We update our curriculum regularly, with the input of industry insiders. We build relationships with employers to ensure that we provide them with candidates who fulfill their job needs — while helping our graduates to build successful careers.
