

The Art Institute of New York City Interior Design Program

QTR	A	B	C	D	E: General Education
1	GD101 Drawing and Perspective Prereq: none Explore various art and media, draw three dimensional objects using one, two, and three point perspective.	GD102 Fundamentals of Design Prereq:none Apply basic design principles and develop layout and organizational skills.	ID112 Beginning Drafting Prereq:none Study language,tools and techniques of basic orthographic drafting;dimension,scale,lettering, plan,elevation,section.	GE151 Computer Applications Prereq: none	GE 101 English 1 Prereq: Compass Placement or GE011&GE012
2	GD113 Color Theory prereq: none Color and its relationship to composition through harmony and contrast.	ID110 Rendering Prereq:GD 101 Use of various media techniques as applied to perspective and isometric drawings.	ID111 Three Dimensional Design Prereq:GD102,ID112 Relationship between space, volume, concept and the built environment.	ID123 Advanced Drafting Prereq: ID112 Continuation of ID112 with the end result being a set of working drawings.	ID 115 Furniture in History and Design Prereq: ID110,ID112
3	ID121 Environmental & Structural Systems Prereq:ID111, ID123 Exploring the nature of mechanical equipment and systems as they relate to interior spaces.	ID122 Space Planning Prereq:ID123, ID110 Developing of skills in ordering and defining space through graphic representation.	ID125 Modern Furniture and Design Prereq:ID123 Process of custom design,construction techniques, working drawings,material and finish specification.	ID 130 Fundamentals of CAD	GE102 English 2 Prereq: GE 101
4	ID131 Interior Design Process Prereq:ID122 The programming process, data collection, adjacency studies, space allocation, and development of design concept and furniture layout for residential and non-residential spaces.	ID132 Building Systems and Materials Prereq:ID121,ID123 The basic principles of sustainable design	ID200 Advanced CAD Prereq: ID130 Continuation of ID130 further developing technological skills and competencies,focusing on working drawings.	ID203 Human Factors/Studio Prereq:ID130 Emphasis on function,accessibility, Codes and safety.	ID 120 Elements of Interior Design Prereq:ID112 Introduction to the principles of design including terms, trends & materials through lectures, labs and field trips
5	ID201 History of Architecture Prereq: none Develop an awareness of the importance of understanding precedent in interior design and architecture.	ID202 Residential Design & Documentation/Studio Prereq: ID123,ID131 Study elements unique to residential design from programming to working drawings	ID133 Textiles Prereq: none Introduces the wide range of textile products used in the interior design market. Fibers, fabric quality, patterns, sources and performance expectations for contract and residential interiors.	ID213 Interior Architectural Detailing/Studio Prereq:ID200 Study of the materials and fabrication techniques involved in the design and construction of basic interior details and how these details are communicated in the documents package.	GE 121 Quantitative Literacy Prereq: None
6	ID210 Non-Residential Design& Documentation/Studio Prereq:ID132, ID200 Elements unique to non-residential spaces based on client need, traces the design process from programming through working drawings.	ID211 Renovation Design &Documentation/Studio Prereq:ID132,ID200 Consider client profile to design a special-purpose project including research and site visits.	ID212 Lighting Prereq: none Characteristics of lighting,lighting design and the method of control to achieve successful environments.	CD202 Career Development Prereq:GE101,GE102	GE GE Elective Prereq: None
7	ID220 Fundamentals of Business Preparation of an FFE book based On one of the following:ID202,ID210,ID211 These three course must be Taken together and require permission of the department chair	ID221 Portfolio Preparation/Studio Preparation of presentation drawings for one of the following :ID202,ID210,ID211	ID222 Interior Architectural Working Drawings Preparation of construction documents for one of the following: ID 202,ID210,ID211.	INT201 Internship Prereq: All courses Permission of department chair required	GE GE Elective Prereq: None